

African Vernacular Movements Workshops

(African, Blues, and Lindy Hop Dancing)

ORGANIZED BY:

Grand St Community Arts

Albany Lindy & Blues

WHEN:

Nov 8th, 2014 all day

WHERE:

TBA

check www.danceflurry.org for info

PRICE:

Free!

Special invite to People of Color to encourage their reclamation of these traditional dance forms rooted in African vernacular movement.

Dance workshops with instructors Sam Coleman (NYC)

& Caro Diallo (Switzerland).

Caro Diallo is a Master Dancer and Choreographer originally from Senegal who teaches worldwide and currently resides in Switzerland. Sam Coleman is a Dancer and Blues, Lindy-hop and Zumba enthusiast who is an Albany, NY native currently working at the Alvin Ailey Dance Theater Company in New York City. Caro and Sam join us in addition to countless professional blues, jazz, soul and swing dancers from all over the country. Dancers of all levels are welcome!

With African drumming, local Capital District vocalist, musicians, spoken word artist, percussionist and visual artists.

SUPPORTED BY:

