Shake, Rattle, & Contra

Join us for contra dances with live music in the historic Shaker Meeting House, a site for community, celebrations, and dance since 1848!

Tuesday, April 17 & May 1st

Dance from 7pm to 9:30pm

Introductory Session for Beginners at 6:45pm

$10 SHS & DFOMembers and Seniors

$12 non-members; $6 students

Buy tickets for two dances for a discount price of $5/$9/$10 for each dance.

Enjoy live music, fun, and entertainment for both beginners and seasoned dancers alike. No experience necessary, no partner needed.

What's a contra dance? Contra dances are done in long lines of couples. Steps are similar to square dances. Dances are first taught and instructions are called throughout the dance.

Callers, Michael Kernan (April) and Melanie Axel-Lute (May), with music provided by the Capital District Megaband, conducted by George Wilson.
