

CONTRA & SQUARE DANCE

September 14th

Quena Crain calling
Annika Amstutz on fiddle
Peter Madsen on guitar

come alone, or bring a friend
everyone is welcome

Join us for this monthly dance series, on second Saturdays, at the Community Preschool,
777 Main Street
Williamstown, MA
(formerly the Methodist Church).

September 14th:

Quena Crain & Annika Amstutz

October 12th:

David Kaynor, Tony Pisano, & Becky
Hollingsworth

November 9th:

Will Mentor & Marko Packard

December 14th:

Tony Parkes, with George Wilson,
Andy Davis, & Selma Kaplan

Admission: $12 individuals, $25 families, $5 students. Barter welcome.

What Is Contra Dancing?

Contra dance is a fun, easy style of folk dance which has flourished in New England since the 1700s. Partners form lines and dance a short sequence of steps with their neighbors. At the end of the sequence, each couple progresses on to meet new neighbors. Over the course of the dance, each couple travels the length of the line and dances with every other couple.

www.northberkshiredance.org